Why this relationship

We miss the everyday companionship of a dog and want to invest in one bond, not rotate through pet-sitting gigs.

Why no pet right now

Our lease and travel rhythm make full-time ownership a poor fit, but regular local time feels sustainable.

Availability

Thursday evenings, one weekend afternoon most weeks, and occasional overnights after trust is built.

The relationship we hope for

A familiar dog who is genuinely excited to see us — and people we can communicate openly with.

A LITTLE MORE PERSONAL

A small joy

"Slow neighborhood walks with a coffee."

We are known for

"Following instructions and sending excellent photo updates."
